

Services Summary

TANWEER LIMITED COMPANY

Obtaining residency and nationality by investing:

Obtaining permanent residency in some countries by investing in the economy of these countries or having projects in them. One can have permanent residency for him and his family members and he has the right to live, work, study, and to get health care. But, he doesn't have the right to vote or stand for election for official positions. We as Tanweer, start with our clients from the first step to choose the best program and to complete all the procedures until obtaining permanent residency or nationality.

Residency and citizenship by buying an estate or a company:

It is one of the most important residency and citizenship programs around the world which is done by purchasing an individual estate approved by the government with financial values that vary between countries. That allows the person and his family to have a permanent residency or a passport in these countries. In such options, Tanweer works on supporting and helping individuals to choose and to complete the procedures to obtain citizenship or residency.

Obtaining residency and nationality by donating:

It is the principle of money for nationality or residency, which is an available program in more than twenty three countries around the world. It enables the person to get the nationality and the residency for him and his family members as he donates to the states fund. In Tanweer, we follow up the person to get this service after studying the best option according to the requirements of the countries and to the data of the individual. Then by completing all the procedures until getting residency and nationality.

Residency and citizenship by depositing in the state treasury:

Some countries encourage their residency and citizenship programs by depositing a sum of money determined by each country in its treasury. Some programs allow a person to benefit from the returns investing this money after many years while other countries do not allow that. We, as Tanweer, choose the best destination based on the person's desire and his financial ability and we complete the procedures until obtaining citizenship.

Language acceptances:

Through Tanweer company's extensive agreements with language institutes and centers in universities and specialized language academies in countries of the world, we register students and book seats for language study (English, German, Chinese, French, Spanish, Czech, Polish, Italian, and Russian ...etc) in order to study the language levels required to pursue study, work, or immigration. Also to register for specialized language courses in a specific field, such as medical and engineering specialists, accounting, trade, and tourism... etc.

Preparatory year:

Some countries impose to study in their universities to pass the preparatory year for international students to learn the language of the country and basic subjects within the required specialization, for all university degrees or as a result of not having obtained the required academic rates for undergraduate study. Accordingly, we are working to secure seats to study the preparatory year in universities and private institutes for Arab students, taking in consideration their university study desire after completing the preparatory year.

Recognition of foreign qualifications:

People can reside in some countries in the world with the aim of doing theoretical and practical training, and for this it is required to submit a report from the Certification Authority and it can be secured for medical and engineering specialties. We, Tanweer, seek securing recognition of certificates in the countries that allow this and to provide all required papers at the embassy to obtain a visa for this purpose.

Recognition of a job title:

It is what is called professional recognition and it means the evaluation and confirmation of the equivalence of scientific and professional qualifications with the ones in the country in which the evaluation is conducted. Likewise, if the training is equivalent to training in this country to obtain a professional title or job title like (doctors, nurses, lawyers, teachers in schools, kindergartens, and engineers). We at Tanweer company submit the application to obtain the job title as well as all the accompanying services from translating the papers and certifying them from the notary in the host country.

The visas :

Tanweer has strengthened its work to obtain visas, whether for short or long periods, and for various tourist, medical, and commercial requirements, visits and short-term work visas such as attending conferences and exhibitions, evaluating all accompanying services and securing all the documents required by the embassy to secure the visa, as well as working to obtain electronic visas to enter many countries during a period short time.

Residencies :

Issuing annual residencies or for a period of more than a year of all kinds and issuing permanent residencies without the need for investment. This residence entitles its holders the right to work according to the conditions of the country and the percentage of the applicant of residence and wandering in other countries based on these residencies.

Scholarships :

Tanweer company assists students who aspire to study and do not have the financial ability to follow their educational achievement by registering and submitting applications for scholarships according to the available scholarship programs in a way that suits their qualifications in a desire to provide the opportunity to those who deserve it, in addition to writing the motivational letter and CV in a professional manner for the purpose of submitting it with the grant request.

Registered bank accounts :

Some countries require as a prerequisite to obtain a visa for a stay of more than three months in which there is a bank account in the name of the person in these countries and the account is restricted in favor of the Foreigners Administration so that the person is allowed to withdraw a monthly value from the account after obtaining the residence in the country. We also work, as Tanweer, to open the bank account and extracting the required statement for the embassy after depositing the amount according to the conditions of the required visa.

Interpretation:

Tanweer has good relations with a group of sworn translators in all Syrian governorates and in all available languages for (English, French, Portuguese, German, and Czech) translation, and it works to secure this service at the lowest possible time to meet people's requests. This service is available round the clock in addition to authenticating papers from embassies after translation, if necessary.

Health insurance:

Health insurance is mandatory in different countries of the world since the birth of an individual and therefore these countries impose on people who come to it to bring out a health insurance policy as a condition for obtaining the visa. Health insurance differs in its type, conditions, compensation value, cost, and duration. We at Tanweer company bring out the health insurance for the university and embassy, which is required to obtain residence, as well as travel insurance for all ages, individuals and families, taking into account the conditions, requirements and value of insurance.

Tanweer provides tourism programs in various countries for individuals, groups and special occasions. It also provides all accompanying services such as booking airline tickets, hotels and internal transportation and providing a tourist guide and interpreter facilities throughout the program period.

Flight reservations:

Tanweer Company has the gates to book airline tickets and has many contracts with the most ancient airlines and provides ticket service at competitive prices around the clock and to all destinations.

Hotel Reservation:

For those holding temporary residency or short-term tourist visas or even for a business visit, and they need a temporary residence in hotels around the world, we provide hotel reservation service at competitive prices and in a short period through wide relations with the most firmly established hotels in all countries of the world.

Book embassy appointments :

In order to apply for a visa in addition to other embassies, it is necessary to book an appointment within the available dates and conditions (submit a visa application of all kinds, authenticate papers, receive a passport ... etc). We book appointments based on their purpose in embassies and service delivery centers within a few working days.

Housing:

We provide all kinds of housing in the host country (campus housing, campus housing for students off campus, private apartments or single rooms, and housing with a host family). So that we meet the person's desire, taking in consideration the financial capacity, number of individuals and conditions of housing in the host country, and we also follow the procedures of the rental contract and register it in the municipality.

Writing the motivational letter:

It is a letter addressed to the university, the embassy, the granting organization, or the employer. It expresses the interests of the applicant, the reason for choosing the university, the specialty, as well as the country. It also shows his eligibility and his priority for the available opportunity. The motivational letter is also considered one of the most important presented papers and the most important factor in assessing the application. At Tanweer Company, we are interested in drafting the letter in a professional manner and in the language required to meet its purpose.

CV WRITING:

A CV is a document that includes a summary of the totality of personal, study, interests and skills data and a summary of the list of jobs and previous work submitted by the applicant. It is also considered one of the basic documents for applying for jobs or obtaining a school seat and it's one of the main evidences in applying for visas, especially academic ones. We at Tanweer work on drafting this document in a way that meets its purpose and in all languages.

Filling out the embassies forms:

The form is an application to obtain a visa of any type including (tourism, study, work, visit, treatment .. etc). It depends on the exact information of the applicant and the purpose of travel. We fill out the form for any purpose, for any country, in all languages, and within a few business hours.

Reserve a Prometric test :

Many countries of the world rely on testing their job applicants in most specialties to ensure their professional competence before obtaining a job opportunity. The Prometric test is considered one of the most important tests for many jobs through the data bank located in the Prometric Centers around the world. We book the test within hours with the required specialty and at the center where we want to take the test.

Certification of Data Flow certificates:

Gulf countries impose their job providers with medical and other specializations to certify educational certificates and the experiences of the applicant to ensure the authenticity of these certificates. Certification of certificates is an important document for submitting an application to obtain a job opportunity in the Emirates, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, and Sultanate of Oman ...etc. We offer a request for certifying certificates through Data Flow within a few working days and issuing a certificate of validity within 30 days.

Reserve language tests:

An international language certificate is one of the basic documents required to obtain (a study seat, a scholarship, a job opportunity, recognition of qualifications, equivalence of certificates and immigration ..etc) The tests are conducted in accredited centers for conducting them and for granting certificates in various countries of the world. We reserve the required language test at its centers in the required country within a few work hours.

Reception at the airport:

We receive clients at the airport of the host country and we deliver them to their place of residence as we provide all the accompanying services such as providing a means of transportation and a private translator to stay with them for a period of time according to the purpose of their travel
